

Fox Class Autumn 1 2018:

Scrumdiddlyumptious !

Tuck in and enjoy a yummy journey of discovery. Work up an appetite with delicious stories about food. Find exciting recipes to read and write your own too!

Here is an overview of the learning taking place this half term.

English	Recounts, Recipes, Poetry,
Science	Sort and classify foods, nutrition and different food groups, investigate changes in food. Healthy eating .
History	Significant Individuals - James Lind
Geography	Food Miles and Fair trade. Map work - UK and World
Art and Design	Observational drawings of fruit
Design and Technology	Investigate textures and tastes of different types of bread. Look at packaging. Create packaging for a new food.
Music	Food Glorious Food
Modern Foreign Languages	Food Vocabulary
Computing	Research tasks, Design packaging labels.

Fox Class Autumn 1 2018:

Homework:

- Two topic based tasks to be completed (see separate letter)
- Spellings: given on a Monday and tested on a Friday
- Times tables: practise tables regularly

Year 3: 2,3,4,5,8,10 x table

Year 4: All tables to 12 x 12

-Reading: Read and record at least 3 times a week.
Change books in morning when needed.

-PE this half term: Ensure PE kit is in all week as the days we do PE may change this half term.

We are looking forward to a fun filled half term with our topic Scrumdiddlyumptious.

Please come and see us if you have any questions or would like further information.

Mrs Pendle and Mrs Pearson