

a

Can you write the Daniel's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Catch!

b

Can you think of a word that ends in -ous to match these definitions?

brave/heroic c_____

funny/amusing h_____

c

Mr Whoops has accidentally used three suffixes incorrectly. Fix the words by using the correct suffixes.

Housework isn't very enjoyable and because I'm quite clumsy, it is often dangeral. My clumsity can be a real problem!

_____	→	_____
_____	→	_____
_____	→	_____

d

Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

My painting is _____ than yours. (best/better/gooder)

The rainstorm was the _____ I'd ever seen. (worse/baddest/worst)

e

Up-level this sentence by adding an adjective, an adverb and an extra subordinate clause!

The girl walked her dog in the park.

f

Insert the correct speech punctuation into these sentences:

The teacher shouted Time to go!

The reporter asked When did the incident occur?

Can you write the Daniel's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

Accept accurate speech punctuation, e.g. "Catch!" shouted Daniel as he threw the ball.

Can you think of a word that ends in -ous to match these definitions?

brave/heroic courageous funny/amusing humorous

Mr Whoops has accidentally used three suffixes incorrectly. Fix the words by using the correct suffixes.

Housework isn't very enjoyful and because I'm quite clumsy, it is often dangeral. My clumsity can be a real problem!

enjoyful	→	enjoyable
dangeral	→	dangerous
clumsity	→	clumsiness

Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

My painting is better than yours. (best/better/gooder)

The rainstorm was the worst I'd ever seen. (worse/baddest/worst)

Up-level this sentence by adding an adjective, an adverb and an extra subordinate clause!

Accept an up-levelled sentence with an added adjective, adverb and subordinate clause, e.g. As it was a beautiful day, the carefree girl walked her dog happily in the park.

Insert the correct speech punctuation into these sentences:

The teacher shouted, "Time to go!"

The reporter asked, "When did the incident occur?"